

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Harvey are visiting in Concord.

Miss Tilla Johnson is confined to the house by illness.

Miss Maud Menut is gaining slowly.

Mrs. Jennie Pope was called to Greenboro by the illness of her father, I. W. Hartson.

Mrs. L. E. Bigelow is in Brightlook Hospital where she underwent an operation, Wednesday.

Ledlie Hatch of Barnet is at Brightlook Hospital recovering from an operation.

Mrs. Jeanie Hatch of Newbury is in Brightlook Hospital where she is recovering from an operation.

Mrs. Walter Tilton was able to leave Brightlook Hospital Wednesday night and will go to her home in Danville.

Gilbert Woods, Clarence Barry, Charles Braley and Homer Smith are in Victory fighting for the remainder of the week.

Harry Witters is in Boston on business.

Miss Lizzie Vamp of St. Albans is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Vina Higgins of Concord was a visitor here, Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Horton and two children are spending two weeks at Sanborn Farm, Orford, N. H.

Carl H. Turner of Boston has been the guest of his mother, Mrs. H. N. Turner, on South Park.

Mrs. William Hill of Lyndonville is visiting her mother, Mrs. James Beck.

B. L. Hall was in Burlington, Tuesday night to attend a Masonic meeting.

Albert Emmons has received his discharge and is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Emmons.

Miss Florence C. Burbank was a recent guest of Mrs. Roswell Davis at Hardwick.

Mrs. Lizzie Kendall and Mrs. Eugene Kendall of Barnet were visitors here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harriman are home from a week spent at Dalton visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. George Morrill of Concord were here on business Wednesday.

Walter Kendall has moved from Passumpsic to a tenement on Railroad street.

The Elks will hold a Flag Day service at the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday evening.

Miss Flora Roberts of Hartford, Conn., is visiting Miss Louisa Stevens.

Laura Kimball is staying with Mrs. Carrie Ingalls at Passumpsic for some time.

Mrs. Walter Kendall was in Barnet Wednesday to attend the graduating exercises of the 8th grade.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Robinson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Page at East St. Johnsbury, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Berry of Bangor, N. H., are visiting at J. M. Perham's.

Mrs. Mary Dunbar left Wednesday for Portsmouth on a visit to her son, H. Guy Dunbar, who is leader of a large orchestra there.

Mrs. Alice Hale of Kingston, N. Y., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Frye, the past week left Wednesday for her home.

Mrs. F. L. Tute of Claremont has been visiting at Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bigelow returning to her home Wednesday.

Miss Hazel Harris of Hartford, Conn., is the guest of Miss Emery at Lyndonville and later will visit relatives here.

Miss Carrie B. Cross of Montpelier, niece of Geo. H. Cross, with her aunt, Mrs. Ervers, motored to town from Montpelier, Wednesday.

A daughter was born June 6 to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Richardson at Syracuse, N. Y., and a granddaughter to Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Drew of this place.

Alfred Emmons of Drummondsville, Canada, who has been visiting his sons, Fred and Frank Emmons, the past three weeks, returned to his home Wednesday, accompanied by his son, Frank.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wright of Passumpsic and St. Johnsbury, but now of Visalia, California, went to Danville Tuesday to visit relatives, having spent some time in St. Johnsbury and vicinity.

F. C. Sherburne is home from Willoughby Lake.

O. H. Tute is visiting at L. A. Bigelow's.

F. C. Jones of New York City is the guest of Mrs. E. M. Dow.

Mrs. V. V. Richardson was a business visitor in Orleans, Wednesday.

R. C. A. Babeck and family motored to Montpelier and Barre Tuesday. Mr. Babeck going on business.

Mrs. H. E. Davis of Centerville was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Rex Turner Wednesday.

Mrs. E. S. Blodgett visited her brother, Henry Stearns, at Lyndonville, Wednesday.

Dr. John Allen was at the Dr. Cleasby hospital Wednesday to operate.

Mrs. E. Sanborn of West Burke has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. A. Nichols.

Mrs. Henry Donahue was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Solon Walter at St. Johnsbury Center Wednesday.

F. B. Jacques accompanied by Mrs. Jacques and son, Wendell, were in Burke and East Haven Tuesday on business.

Mrs. S. H. Nelson of Newton Highlands, Mass., a former resident of St. Johnsbury, arrived here Tuesday for the summer and is stopping with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Perham.

Not a serious moment in "Le Marriage a Failure" Colonial Theatre, Saturday, June 14.

Noel Noyes has gone to New Haven to attend his class reunion at Yale College, and will be absent a week.

Watch for the Singing Clown free street attraction Saturday, June 14—"Le Marriage a Failure" Colonial Theatre, June 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howes celebrated the fortieth wedding anniversary at Mrs. Howes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Noyes, Thursday evening by a small dinner party.

The Rev. A. S. Woodworth, who has been in Brightlook Hospital the past 12 weeks, was able to sit up for the first time Wednesday. His many friends are glad to learn that he is slowly gaining.

Raymond Laughlin, who has been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. L. A. Miner, the past two weeks, returned to Boston, Friday with his car accompanied by his cousin, Wendell Colclough, who will spend a few days visiting in the city.

At a meeting of the New Hampshire Chiropody Association held at Concord, N. H., last week, Dr. F. W. Magoon was elected an honorary member. At this time he was presented with a diamond ring in appreciation of the service he rendered in securing the passage of a bill in the last legislature for practice of chiropody in that state.

The Vermont Podic Association held their semi-annual meeting at Burlington, June 12, on the roof garden of the New Sherwood Hotel. Among the speakers were W. Scott May, M. D., secretary of the State Board of Medicine, who addressed the members of the association on subjects of interest. Special demonstrations on foot troubles were given. At the business session Dr. F. W. Magoon was again elected president, he having been president of this association ever since its organization.

Mrs. Kate Crofton of Bennington has been a recent visitor here.

M. C. Garfield was a legal visitor in Lyndonville, Thursday.

Miss G. M. Head of Albany, is a guest at the St. Johnsbury House.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Gray of Westfield were here Wednesday.

L. P. Leach and A. B. Noyes were in Lunenburg Thursday at camp.

Mrs. John Ralston of Concord visited at Plym Pike's, Thursday.

Miss Agnes Lynch is home from a visit to Danville.

Miss Arlene Jack has returned to her home in Concord.

Mrs. G. A. Hackett of Newport was here Thursday on business.

Mrs. John Bacon of Danville is visiting at Elmer Lewis' a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Taft have returned to their home in Whitinsville, Mass.

Miss Katherine Carpenter is home from a few days spent at Plymouth with her mother.

Mrs. Laila Fitzgerald has returned to her home in Bangor after a few days spent here with friends.

Mrs. L. Couture of Thetford, Minn., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Turgeon.

Miss Minnie Rodney has returned home from a month spent here in Boston.

William Kimball was a recent visitor in Island Pond in the interest of the C. H. Goss Co.

George Moore has returned to his home in Boston after a few days spent with his brother, Ellis Moore.

William Donahy of Cranberry Canada is visiting his son, Ernest Donahy.

Bloomfield Palmer and Raymond Pearl are in Burlington to attend Masonic meeting.

Louis Kimball is home from Albany where he has spent some time visiting friends.

Miss Maud Bilodeau of Manchester has returned to her home here where she will remain.

Mrs. A. Simmon of Lyndonville was a guest at D. E. Simpson's Thursday.

Sam Moore is home from Montpelier where he has been attending U. S. court.

Mrs. Abbie McCarty was the guest of Mrs. Fred Wilson at Melndoe Falls, Thursday.

Mrs. V. E. Lurchin is in camp at Willoughby Lake with Mrs. F. C. Sherburne.

Mrs. Cora Valentine left Thursday for White River Junction and Lebanon on business for several days.

Miss Dorothy Anderson of Holyoke college is here to spend her vacation with her mother, Mrs. H. E. Anderson.

William Nugent has returned to his home in Cranberry, Canada, accompanied by Mrs. Ella Cunningham who will remain for a visit.

Miss Abigail Sealey is reported as doing well from her recent operation from appendicitis at Brightlook hospital.

Mrs. Charles H. Powers and son, Charles, went to West Lebanon Thursday to visit Mrs. Willis Austin for the remainder of the week.

Miss Helen May of this place and Frederick D. Brown of Boston were in Guildhall Wednesday on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Abbott were called to Barre, Thursday by the illness of their daughter, Mrs. G. Thompson.

George Calbeck was a business visitor in New Hampshire, Thursday. Friday he left for his lumber camp in Maine.

Mrs. J. S. Powers and daughter, Miss Freda Powers of Lancaster, Mrs. Flora Griswold of East St. Johnsbury were here Thursday.

Mrs. L. E. Allard and daughter, Laura of Lyndonville were here Friday on business.

The friends of C. C. Bingham will be glad to learn that he is able to sit up after a severe illness of pneumonia.

Ellen Daley of New York City was a visitor here Friday on her way to Victory to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Percy of Newport were here Friday to have his eyes treated.

Miss Mary Shorey was in Concord Thursday attending a meeting of the Universalist churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sealey and children of Randolph are spending the week end with his sisters at E. Barquin's.

Mildred Harvey will soon complete her work as stenographer for Porter, Witters & Harvey, to accept a similar position in the railroad office.

Leonard Dodge of Woodsville was here Thursday on his way to Bartonsville.

Mrs. E. J. Colby went to Passumpsic to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Willard.

Mrs. George Smith of Peacham is here to see her husband who is in Brightlook hospital.

Mrs. John Corliss, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walter Smith, returned to her home in Bradford, Friday.

Among the out of town visitors in St. Johnsbury Thursday were H. A. Osgood of Danville and Perry Porter of West Burke.

Miss Catherine Morrison and Miss Ruth Flint are home from a week spent in Montpelier guests of Misses Laura and Helen Burbank.

Lewis Fournier, who has been visiting his son, Thomas Fournier the past week, returned to his home in Concord, Friday.

Mrs. A. J. Poole and Mrs. Meschere of Braintree motored to town Thursday and spent the day in the business circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, who have spent the past week with their daughter, Mrs. John Coombs, returned to their home in Sherbrooke, Friday.

Several from here attended the dance at Harvey's Pond, Thursday night, among whom were Lewis Kimball, Fred Kelley, Albert Lynch, Frank Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Peterson left Friday for Plattsburg to spend the week-end with their son, Raymond, who has arrived from overseas and is there in the base hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Polley of Westminster, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Presby of Whitefield, N. H., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Marcotte.

Dr. H. C. Nowell, Mrs. Margaret N. Heywood, Lawyer Gay, W. Hill and R. W. Leonard enjoyed the late afternoon fishing on the preserve of the Ni Sakiton Fish and Game Club in Waterford, Thursday.

William Gadapoe, Charles Clifford, William R. Clifford of North Danville, Supt. Harvey Burbank of Passumpsic, Mrs. Maggie Spaulding of Lunenburg were here on business Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Flint have returned home from Baldwinville, Mass., accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols, who will spend the summer here. Mr. Nichols, who is 75 years of age drove his car through in one day with the party.

C. E. Merrill has moved to No. 10 South street.

Dr. and Mrs. Boynton of Lisbon, N. H., were here Friday.

Grace Unity Club will hold a Food Sale at the Methodist church Saturday at three o'clock. adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Heath of Danville were business visitors here Saturday.

Mrs. Weaver of Baltimore has accepted a position in the Berry-Ball store for the summer.

Frederick Brown who has spent the past week in town has returned to Boston.

Attorney Alexander Dunnett was in White River Junction the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Chase were guests of Mrs. Raymond Nutting Sunday at Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Wilcomb and his mother, Mrs. Ida Wilcomb spent the week end in camp at Joe's Pond.

Clarence Colby of Orleans was a week end visitor here with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Turner and son, Reginald, spent Sunday at their camp at Forest Lake, N. H.

R. E. French is erecting a Bangalow cottage at Joe's Pond to be finished in July. The family expect to spend most of the season there.

Wilmer Cheney of Burke and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Murray of East Burke have been guests of Mrs. Nellie Guild, recently.

I. W. Smith, who spent the winter months at Southern Pines, S. C., and the past few weeks in Boston, returned home Friday.

Mrs. Elsie M. Harvey has moved from 6 Pearl street into her new home that she bought of Thomas Farrell, 16 Spring street.

At Brown's cigar store is exhibited a German gun made in Berlin in 1915. The gun was sent to Fred Libertie by his nephew, who is in the service overseas.

Mrs. Lee S. Blanchard and daughter, Marion were in town Wednesday.

Miss M. tion for tonsils & recover

Mr. & daughter, waiting Wedne Lucy I'd the marks,

D. Hancock and tended the grand- old Orleans last when their received and receiving having highest

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Fleming, of Walden visited at the home of his brother, Isaac Fleming, Sunday.

George and Peter Harris, Lewis Phillips and Thomas Phillips were in Lyndonville, Sunday.

Robert Willie has returned from France and received his discharge. He is in town visiting friends.

Mrs. Clarence Bennett, of the Lounge & Smythe store is taking a six weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bilodeau of Lancaster were here Sunday visiting relatives.

Miss Clara Metcalf of Coventry is working at E. C. Sherburne's restaurant.

Edmund Hamilton spent the week-end at his home returning to Montpelier Monday.

W. A. Freeman has completed his work at the Beny-Hall store and Monday was a business visitor in Bethlehem, N. H.

Mr. O. N. Jenne and two children of Windor are visiting her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Locke for a month.

Mrs. Fred Sheldon and son, John, of Berlin, N. H., are at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cole.

Miss Marion Merrill of the telephone office spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Robert Carr at East Burke.

Stephen Kelley, city editor of the St. Albans Messenger, formerly reporter on the Daily Caledonian, is in town calling on old friends.

J. W. Farmer of Boston has been the guest of his nephew, Dr. F. E. Farmer, the past few days, returning home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carriek, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McLeod and Miss Beulah Harris spent the week end at Joe's Pond at the Scott Harris cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Armstrong of Sherbrooke, P. Q., spent the day Sunday visiting friends and relatives in town.

Dr. William Hamilton of Woodsville and Mrs. Hamilton were Sunday visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Clement at North Danville.

The St. Johnsbury House will open their tea room tomorrow, June 18.

On Monday evening, June 23d, parents and the public generally are invited to attend a parents' meeting to be held in the North Building, Summer street school. An interesting program has been arranged. There will be an exhibition of folk dancing and special drills by the pupils of grades 3-6, and music by the Junior High school orchestra. There will also be an opportunity for parents who are interested in the industrial education for their boys to learn more about the vocational school.

GREENSBORO

Mrs. Bennett and son, David, of Hartford, Conn., are at their cottage at Wilmere for the summer.

Mrs. Charles M. Stebbins and two daughters of Brooklyn, N. Y., are at their cottage, Fern Lodge Lakewood for the summer.

Miss Nellie Kellogg of Morrisville who has spent many summers in a cottage at Wilmere, died at her home last Tuesday evening.

The new tractor for use on the roads was received last Wednesday and has been put to work on the road machine. It is a 22 horse power machine and cost about $1500.

The Congregational church, Library and Grange Hall were all cleaned the past week.

Mrs. Victor H. Lukens and son of West Philadelphia, Pa., are at their cottage, Towamencin, Aspenhurst, for the summer.

The following program will be given at the Hazen Road Pomona Grange meeting which is to be held in the Grange Hall here next Saturday: Address of welcome, P. N. Allen; response, Mrs. G. J. Perkins; paper, Greensboro as a Summer Resort, Geo. A. Porter; remarks by County Agent, H. F. Johnson of Newport; talk, Relation between the Farm Bureau and the Grange, G. J. Perkins; piano solo, Mrs. Lorinda Hardy; paper, The Value of Education, Harvey Burbank; remarks by the Grange Fire Insurance agent, E. C. Goodrich.

Richard Allen has been spending the past few days at Northfield, Mass.

Mrs. Mary Weed who has spent the past winter in Passumpsic, has returned to her home in Greensboro Bend.

Mrs. Mary Robinson has been in Sheffield the past week caring for her sister, Mrs. Nellie Dunn, who is very ill.

Mrs. Charles Sternburg and Mrs. Wm. Sternburg and Mrs. Self visited friends in Thetford the first of the week.

Mrs. Gladys Corrow who has been caring for Mrs. Payson Morse, has returned to her home in Craftsbury.

John Rock has moved his family from East Hardwick to one of the tenements of Cuthbertson Brothers in Greensboro Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Goodrich and Mrs. H. A. Hatson are visiting relatives in Ashland, N. H.

Supt. C. L. Cowles of Craftsbury was in town Thursday looking after the interests of the local schools.

CABOT

Given Surprise Party

Miss Inez Abbott was very agreeably surprised at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Abbott, last Thursday evening by her friends from Danville, where she has been at work in the bank for the past two years.

At the eventful eve a car drove up a few minutes before eight o'clock to the door carrying Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Heath and other friends. They told Miss Abbott that they were out riding and thought they would call. Soon several other cars arrived and Miss Abbott, being so completely surprised she could say nothing. She was told she had company; whereupon she found her voice and said "I should think I had." From that time on cars kept coming until about 76 people were present.

The evening passed very pleasantly with singing, visiting, and an excellent lunch of ice cream, wafers and cakes, and lemonade.

Miss Abbott was presented with several beautiful bouquets, some of which were a large bunch of tulips, some lilacs of the valley, ladies' slippers, and pansies. She will long remember and appreciate the kind thoughts of the Danville friends who so kindly and appropriately showed their good will and feeling for her.

Mrs. S. J. Wiswell, who has been ill for several weeks is failing.

Miss Alice Paine spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Crowley at Hardwick.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Read and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Read spent Wednesday and Thursday at Randolph with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paige.

Supt. J. W. Butterfield, who has been ill for several weeks, underwent an operation at City Hospital, Barre, recently, having one leg amputated just below the hip.

Mrs. Etta Walbridge, Mrs. Sallie Lyford, Mrs. Lottie Smith and Mrs. Emery Putnam spent Monday at Barre.

Children's day was observed at both churches last Sunday morning.

B. G. Rogers, E. J. Rogers and Harold Wilson are away on a fishing trip to New Hampshire.

Several Montpelier seminary students gave a play "The Camouflage of Shirley" at I. O. O. F. hall Wednesday evening.

Mrs. T. H. Crowley and daughter, Melba, of Hardwick, were recent visitors at S. A. Nelson's.

---

HONOR TO LOCAL BOY

---

Merton Ashton Was one of Three Promoted From Yankee Division

---

Among the soldiers home on furlough this July 4th season is Merton E. Ashton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Ashton of River Street. Young Ashton's record in the army is worthy of note because he was one of three officers promoted from ranks of the 26th division in 80th division.

Ashton went across Sept. 26 originally attached to Co. D Vermont. When the Vermont division was merged into the 1 army he was placed in Co. B Machine Gun Battalion. On in France he was elected to an officer's training school. He been there about a month and line for a second Lieutenantcy commission was withheld on account of his age. His exceptional, however, resulted in a special being made ignoring his age gained his rank and with two was promoted from the 26th to 80th.

He saw fighting in the Argonne forest and was attached to the 1st division, which went into the line twice in that memorable battle is home for furlough at present is considering remaining and starting a career in the army. He is a son of St. Johnsbury's sons of whom community may well be proud.

---

WEST DANVILLE

---

Elwin Berry recently sold his farm to H. A. Chesley of St. Albans and he has sold it to Le Benoit.

Miss Christine Hunt of St. Albans is visiting her grandmother Mrs. George Kittredge.

The Swasey Brothers have decided partnership. Charles bought out his brother, Tracy.

Albert Daniels has purchased William Somers' farm in Pearl River.

Mrs. Cleveland of Boston, has been visiting her sister, Margaret Houghton.

Mr. Muncy of Barre is erecting his cottage.

Mrs. Kellogg and daughter, Clark are occupying their cottage.

---

WEST WATERFORD

---

Charles Cushman is juryman. Waterford.

The thermometer was 94 shade for four days last week.

The farmers were very thankful for the rain Friday.

The only time we take the girl graduate seriously is when she comes from our own family.

Well, the corn is up high enough so we don't have to spend each evening sitting on the back piazza a shot-gun.

---

HELPED HER LITTLE GI

---

Children need all their strength growing. A lingering cold we them so that the system is open tack by more serious sickness. Amanda Flint, Route 4, New Bedford, O., writes: "Foley's Eucalypti and Tar cured my little girl of a worst tickling cough. I had many things and found nothing help until I got Foley's Honey Tar." Gives immediate relief from distressing, racking, tearing coughs and heals. Good for croup and whooping cough. SOLD EVERYWHERE.